SAROSY JOINS LAKE ADAMHS BOARD

Painesville, OH -- The Lake County Commissioners have appointed Fairport Harbor resident Frank Sarosy to a four-year term on the Lake County Alcohol, Drug Addiction and Mental Health Services (ADAMHS) Board. He was sworn in at the February 27, 2012 Board meeting.

Sarosy is a financial consultant and Vice President of Investments for the Mentor-based office of Benjamin F. Edwards & Company. He was Mayor of Fairport Harbor for 12 years and also served as president of both the Fairport Harbor School Board and the Lake County School Board.

Established by Ohio Statute, ADAMHS Boards are responsible for planning, funding and evaluating local mental health and addiction recovery services. In Lake County, those services are delivered through a network of providers – Neighboring, Crossroads, Pathways, Signature Health, Lake Geauga Recovery Centers, and others. Board members, 18 Lake County residents who serve without compensation, are appointed by either the Ohio Department of Mental Health, the Ohio Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services, or the Lake County Commissioners. By Statute, board members include mental health and addiction recovery experts, consumers (people who need and use services), family members of consumers, and community leaders.
