

13 REASONS TO TALK WITH YOUR KIDS ABOUT 13 REASONS WHY

The popular Netflix series 13 Reasons Why follows the fictional story of a teenage girl who leaves behind 13 mysterious audio recordings after killing herself. As a parent you should be aware of myths and facts about suicide, and learn ways to have honest, meaningful conversations with your teen about the issues raised in the series. Renowned speaker and author Kevin Hines will lead the discussion which will also include local experts.

Monday, December 4

6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Auburn Career Center
8140 Auburn Road, Painesville
Presentation Center

Enter: Door 33/ south side of parking lot

Free to attend!

RSVP or more information: Pam Schafer-Jones
440-639-1200 or pam@namilake.org

CEUs: Two CEUs will be awarded, pending approval, to qualifying counselors and social workers for full completion. CEUs provided through Lake-Geauga Training Committee, an approved provider of Continuing Education Units.

About Kevin Hines

In 2000, Kevin Hines attempted suicide by jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge. Miraculously, Kevin survived. And in the years since he has been sharing his story with the goal of helping others find the help they need. In 2013, Kevin released his bestselling memoir Cracked Not Broken, Surviving and Thriving after a Suicide Attempt.

Presented by the Lake County ADAMHS Board, the Lake County Suicide Prevention Coalition, the Ashtabula County Mental Health & Recovery Services Board, the Lake-Geauga Training Committee on behalf of Andrea and Bill McGovern, NAMI Lake County, and Highland Springs.

